

LUNARIUM

Reviews

"A very solid inaugural outing...their ambitious debut album has fun combining the classic gallop of British metal's new wave and the melodrama of Manowar" – Adrien Begrand, Pop Matters

"Over 60 minutes of trollslaying, ale chugging, battle-tested, music & madness! In a digital age, this CD is definitely worth the investment." – Michael "MettleAngel" Francisco, Metal Covenant

"What we have here is an album of pure power metal in the vein of Iron Maiden, Falconer and Iced Earth." – Angela Worstmann, Fractal Metal Reviews

"These guys rock ... no doubt about it!" – Shayne Underwood, The Bloody Irish Boys

"...there isn't really one bad song on this debut album" – Tim Vervaeke, Thoughts of Metal CD Review

"... breathes with cultural elegance, formulating their own take on acts as diverse as Skyclad, Falconer, Tyr, Blind Guardian and Iced Earth along with an occasional nod to thrash and black influences." – Matt Coe, Imhotep

"Lunarium are a band who blend Celtic and other European musical motifs with traditional heavy metal and do a damn fine job!" – Ian O'Sullivan, Hallowed

Overview

New full-length CD from Celtic power metal band Lunarium, out of Waverly, Ohio, features the previously unreleased "Lord of Winter" as well as fan favorites "Sea Dragons" and "Trollslayer."

Lunarium's clean, aggressive interpretation of folk metal, combined with their tight vocals, compelling lyrics, and catchy riffs ensure you'll be humming the songs long after the CD is over. Lunarium combines stories of epic battles, heroic adventures, fantasy, and history into a well-crafted anthem to warriors throughout time who have stood up for freedom from tyranny and oppression in all forms. The self-described "ale-swilling, trollslaying, angry Celtic metal" of Lunarium is a fun, head-banging romp through Celtic history and mythology, with occasional side trips into fantasy worlds and the local pub.

Musically, Lunarium is power metal with a strong European influence but with enough crunchy riffing, growling and screaming to appeal to the fans of thrash, black, death and punk metal.

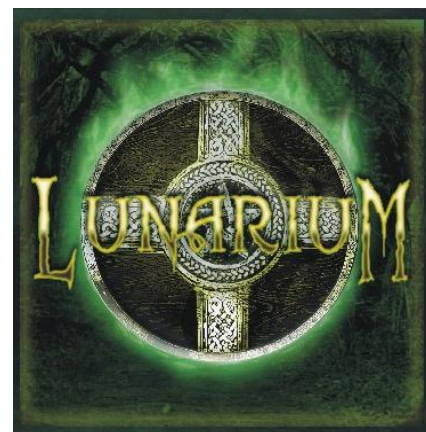

For Fans Of

Falconer, Flogging Molly, Ensiferum, Turisas

"...65 minutes of folk metal enjoyment!
... Lunarium delivers the goods!"
– Nico De Vrees, Hellspawn.com

Track Listing

1. Sea Dragons
2. Death Rides on Winged Glory
3. The Waymen
4. Lord of Winter
5. Trollslayer
6. Heritage Taken
7. Liberation
8. Hail the Fallen
9. 1066
10. Ale
11. Feast of Sargonnas
12. Brothers in Arms
13. The Divine Infidelity of a False Prophet
14. Luna's Wake
15. Warcy

Artist:	Lunarium
Title:	Lunarium
USA Street Date:	11/11/08
File Under:	Metal
Packaging:	Jewel case
Hometown:	Waverly, OH
Catalog #:	SHE106
UPC:	899368001060

Label Contact: Marybeth Taylor, Straw House Entertainment
strawhouse@gmail.com
www.strawhouseentertainment.com
www.myspace.com/strawhouseentertainment